

Deloitte Luxembourg announces its new composition of the Executive Committee

Deloitte Luxembourg is pleased to announce the new composition of its Executive Committee. Effective 1 June 2026, the new team will support the firm's ambition to accelerate growth and continue its transformation, with a clear focus on client centricity, value creation, collaboration, and first-class execution.

A LEADERSHIP TEAM BUILT FOR IMPACT

Deloitte Executive Committee effective 01 June 2026:

- Joachim Heukmes – Chief Executive Officer & Managing Partner
- Joachim Bailly – Chief Operating Officer
- Maude Bologne – People & Purpose Leader
- Luc Brucher – Non FSI and Public Institutions Leader
- Francisco Da Cunha – Investment Management & Private Markets Leader
- Maryam Khabirpour – Banking, Capital Markets, Insurance & PSF Leader
- Patrick Laurent – Chief Technology & Transformation Officer
- Jérôme Lecoq – Chief Risk Officer
- Pascal Martino – Growth Leader

- Sandrine Muller – Audit & Assurance Leader
- Dany Teillant – Tax Leader
- Ronan Vander Elst – Advisory & Consulting Leader

As previously announced, Joachim Heukmes will succeed John Psaila, who has served as Managing Partner & CEO since June 2018 and will complete his second consecutive mandate at the end of May 2026. The transition is under way and will continue over the coming weeks in a spirit of continuity and care, ensuring a smooth handover ahead of 1 June 2026.
