Quintet Private Bank, headquartered in Luxembourg and operating across Europe and the UK, today announced the appointment of Joséphine Vérine to its Board of Directors.

Vérine brings to Quintet more than 30 years of international leadership experience in the luxury sector, as well as private banking, with deep expertise in customer experience, brand development, relationship management and business growth.

She currently serves as Senior Vice President, Clienteling & Lifestyle & Hospitality, at Louis Vuitton, where she leads the development of a global portfolio while contributing to the brand's long-term growth strategy. Since 2025, she has also served as General Manager for Germany and Austria, overseeing business operations, commercial performance and client development across the two markets.

A French and German national based between Paris and Munich, Vérine has held senior leadership roles at some of the world's most recognized luxury brands. At Christian Dior, she served as Global Client Strategy, Retail Marketing & Haute Couture Director, leading worldwide client development and marketing initiatives. Earlier in her career, she served in executive roles at Chanel, Céline and Giorgio Armani.

Vérine also has experience in the private banking sector. From 2016-2018, she served as Chief Operating Officer and Chief of Staff for Marketing & Communication at Lombard Odier Group in Geneva, where she coordinated group-wide marketing and communications activities and led strategic client service initiatives.

“Joséphine brings a distinctive combination of international business leadership, strategic insight and a deep understanding of how to deliver exceptional client experience,” said Hugo Bänziger, Chair of Quintet’s Board of Directors. “As technology increasingly levels the playing field, the ability to build trusted, long-term relationships has become a key differentiator. Joséphine’s track record of driving enduring client loyalty at some of the world’s leading brands will be a valuable addition to the Board.”

Commenting on her appointment, Vérine said: “I am delighted to join the Board of Quintet. The firm has a strong reputation for putting clients first and helping them preserve and grow their wealth across generations. I look forward to working with my fellow Board members and contributing to Quintet’s continued success.”
